

1920s Discussion

Directions: The 1920s saw significant technological change, modernization, and changing demographics, which in turn led to increased political and cultural conflicts on several fronts. Using chapter 23, be able to address the following debates using specific examples, discussing how the 1920s served as a departure from previous cultural practices or political ideas. Be prepared for a class discussion on Friday, March 6. You will also have a quiz on Friday, March 6 over chapter 23.

1. Tradition vs. Innovation
2. Urban vs. Rural
3. Fundamentalist Christianity vs. Scientific Modernism
4. Management vs. Labor
5. Native-born vs. Immigrants
6. White vs. Black
7. Idealism vs. Disillusionment
