

Chapter 23 Questions

Directions: Please answer the following questions on a separate piece of paper using pages 697-725 in your textbook.

1. How did the assembly line technique, introduced by Henry Ford, revolutionize factories and the sale of the car?
2. What did the Washington Naval Conference achieve?
3. What is the Kellogg-Briand pact of 1928?
4. What was discovered in the 1920s census to have happened for the first time in the United States? (pg. 706)
5. How did the automobile change life for Americans?
6. What effect did mass culture (books, magazines, radio programs, and movies) have on American society?
7. What is unique about the film The Jazz Singer?
8. In what ways did the 1920s flappers challenge traditional American attitudes about women?
9. Why are writers of the 1920s called the "lost generation?" What does this phrase mean? For help answering this question see: <http://www.pbs.org/wnet/americannovel/timeline/lostgeneration.html>
10. Which type of musical style best characterized the 1920s?
11. Describe the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s.
12. What was the National Origins Act of 1924? What was the intent behind this immigration policy?
13. How does the Scopes Trial illustrate the conflict between fundamentalism and modernism in the 1920s?
14. Which types of people supported prohibition? Who opposed prohibition?
15. How did the Ku Klux Klan's views towards "Americanism" change when it re-emerged in the 1920s?
16. What were some of the key issues of the 1928 election? (3 issues)

Chapter 23 Questions

Directions: Please answer the following questions on a separate piece of paper using pages 697-725 in your textbook.

1. How did the assembly line technique, introduced by Henry Ford, revolutionize factories and the sale of the car?
2. What did the Washington Naval Conference achieve?
3. What is the Kellogg-Briand pact of 1928?
4. What was discovered in the 1920s census to have happened for the first time in the United States? (pg. 706)
5. How did the automobile change life for Americans?
6. What effect did mass culture (books, magazines, radio programs, and movies) have on American society?
7. What is unique about the film The Jazz Singer?
8. In what ways did the 1920s flappers challenge traditional American attitudes about women?
9. Why are writers of the 1920s called the "lost generation?" What does this phrase mean? For help answering this question see: <http://www.montgomerycollege.edu/Departments/hpolscriv/jbolhofer.html>
10. Which type of musical style best characterized the 1920s?
11. Describe the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s.
12. What was the National Origins Act of 1924? What was the intent behind this immigration policy?
13. How does the Scopes Trial illustrate the conflict between fundamentalism and modernism in the 1920s?
14. Which types of people supported prohibition? Who opposed prohibition?
15. How did the Ku Klux Klan's views towards "Americanism" change when it re-emerged in the 1920s?
16. What were some of the key issues of the 1928 election? (3 issues)